

Texas Hog Dispatch

SERVICE • COMMUNITY • LAND

Hogs leave a mark. So do the facts.

Clear information. A more informed Texas.

Texas Hog Dispatch began with a simple idea: help property owners connect with independent feral hog operators. As Efrain Ruiz and Kelly Trotman kept asking questions, the work grew into Hog Watch - a free, source-linked resource built to make a complicated Texas issue easier to understand.

01

Clear explanations

Plain-English answers, educational guides and a five-question knowledge check.

02

Evidence you can follow

Source-linked research, public records and clearly labeled estimates.

03

A bigger picture

Maps, county information and connected topics that show how the issue fits together.

SOURCED RESEARCH • 254 TEXAS COUNTIES • FREE PUBLIC EDUCATION • PUBLISHED IN TEXAS WILDLIFE EXTRA

Start with the path that fits.

Point your phone camera at any code.

FREE RESEARCH

Explore Hog Watch

tracker.texashogdispatch.com

PROPERTY HELP

Visit THD

Requests & operator pathway

SUPPORT THE WORK

Visit the Field Shop

Mission-backed merchandise

KEEP IN TOUCH

Save Efrain's card

Phone • email • website

713-364-8084

ops@texashogdispatch.com

TexasHogDispatch.com

Texas Hog Dispatch coordinates intake and connects property owners with independent operators; THD does not perform field removal services. Hog Watch provides general research and education, not property-specific assessment, emergency guidance or service guarantees.